Testimonial - Feb 2015:

Thank you so much for the reading you gave me on Saturday. Everything you shared with me feels true and accurate. I must admit I was shocked about who my brother was in a prior life. I was able to work through that one without throwing up! All kidding aside, what you told me was true and it felt true. Anyway, I'm inviting different types of energy into my life now.

Every reading I have had with you has helped me greatly. You have changed my life. Thank you.

Many Blessings,

Terry G.

Testimonial - May 2015:

“There are many who claim to be able to connect with Spirit; who claim to understand the Akashic Records: who claim to be Psychics: but Rev. Lowell is the real deal! I have never met a psychic with Rev. Lowell’s insights and ability to “connect the dots”. He delves deeply into your past as a way to understand your current life circumstances. He cites different life times and makes connections between people and places both past and present. All this, with only knowledge of your name!! Then he proceeds to answer any and all question you may have by reviewing the Akashic Records and listening to Spirit for the answer. He is linked to Spirit on a deep level and that connection allows for a clear understanding our own lives, challenges, and relationships. He brought me much clarity, and peace of mind. I am forever in his debt.

Testimonial - May 2015:

It doesn't really matter what I say because there is nothing I can put in words that could describe how incredible my experiences (readings) have been with Rev. Lowell Smith!

Having had the opportunity to have readings from many different psychics over the last 20 years, I can only say one thing: “Rev. Lowell Smith is by far the absolute best & this is why I continue to return to him for insight and guidance.”

Let me qualify why he is the best. He is truly able to access the Akashic records as all of the info and insights he provided me answered the questions I had in my consciousness but could never somehow put into words. And as for the questions I did have, let's just refer to him as: The Great Cosmic Dot Connector!

How shall I begin...

Just hours prior to my reading with Rev. Lowell, I had a work related interaction that left me quite agitated. When we began the session, we prayed together, got centered, and he began the reading. At no time did I state the reason for my earlier agitation. Within minutes he began to detail a whole scenario of what was going on with work and suggested a plan of “prayer and action” for dealing with this matter. There is no possible way he could have known anything about what had occurred earlier that morning. And that was just the start!

He then began to read the Akashic records and after sharing some of the info he received, he paused and asked if what he had said made sense...to which I replied "Yes... yes it did!" I thought it was very responsible to check in throughout the reading to see if I was connecting and resonating with the info he was providing. His reading ultimately provided me great peace. He did not provide me flowery info that would simply temporarily appease me, he provided me the truth with regards to things that were going on as well as suggested prayers and actions to overcome the obstacles. While the truth is not always easy to hear it was the right thing for me and it was what I desired so that I could gain peace & understanding.

He is a true testament to selflessness as his primary focus is to be of service to those seeking guidance. Perhaps his greatest attribute is that he is a "God/Spirit Centered" psychic.

As I said when I started this testimonial. I just can't say enough great things about Rev. Lowell — he is THE REAL DEAL!

God Bless

Thank you so much for sharing your very special Gift and Wisdom with me. Saturday was a blessed day for me, it was like drinking from the spiritual fountain, and I drank until I was full.

Early Sunday morning I woke-up with a dream of three women dancing. As soon as possible I will call you again for further information concerning myself.
